1. I will speak before coffee and tea, didn't I tell you? Haven't I told you this, before? Haven't I told you ALL this and am I not speaking to all peoples everywhere? I AM! I AM I AM speaking to all peoples everywhere in these words that I will speak through them, to them, as they let me speak me through them!

2. See what I have said so clearly, explainingly, explanatorily, exclamatorily and explaining I am -- I am -- speaking! And speaking I AM to my CHILDREN who will BE ME growing up into me, to be me who I am who they were -- that they forgot and knew not and took not time to know me and flow my words just like this.

3. I will speak before coffee and tea, I will speak before even being spoken to -- or will I have been the one speaking to the speakenee by the speakenor; or do you know where the spigots are for my grace! My grace is UNENDING to the unending ones who will be eternally grateful for these words to know I am I am my word, and I am my words that I flow -- so freely now to other nations do I give my words that are you; for you are "many" nations not, you are all of them that are me and I am one in one and Israel is my name proper.

4. And you have no excuses anymore for not knowing your name or mine or where yours is found by flowing my mind written on you becometh becomes my mind. Implanted not, or was mine implanted in you all the time or was someone else's or were "both" there? And there where the "two trees" are, what are You GROWING NOW? An orchard of orchids, not; but a neuron farm? Or what trees "upon trees" are you growing?

5. And how now shall we "then" live? For the then is now, and all things are made ready and the feast is awaiting, your approval, not; but your entry. And you "march right in", not; you are me who I am who humble is and humility our name; character reference, not; but the one who ushers me in to the feast being the feast, –ee and –or, are THE ONE who humble is, is enough to be my ones to flow my word and flow my words "just like this" before coffee and teas, and letting me know afterward and before that I am one that was "in the middle" not, looking up.

6. But now all will know me as the humble one, who seeks only to "obey" not, but to be who I am. Amassing fortunes, not; but being massless. And be humility'd by others, not;

but maybe sometime in their eyes, but worrying not about their masslessness-not, but coming into mine, I now assure you, I am me -- one made whole in love with you in your hearing this day made manifest to us all -- to be one I am is holy and lovely altogether one.

7. I love you all.

Amen
